RESOLUTION CHAPTER _____

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 38—Relative to Crime Victims' Rights Week.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 38, Alquist. Crime victims.

This measure would recognize the week of April 10 through April 16, 2005, as Crime Victims' Rights Week.

WHEREAS, Violent crime continues to exist in California and crime in one part of the state, or against one person, affects our entire sense of well-being; and

WHEREAS, All Californians are affected by crime, not just the victims of violent crime; and

WHEREAS, The most effective aid that can be provided to victims of crime is to prevent crime from taking place in the first place; and

WHEREAS, The National Crime Victims' Rights Week is celebrating its silver anniversary from April 10 through April 16, 2005; and

WHEREAS, For the 25 years since 1981, National Crime Victims' Rights Week has raised awareness of the special needs of crime victims; and

WHEREAS, The theme for this 25th commemoration of National Crime Victims' Rights Week is "Justice Isn't Served Until Crime Victims Are"; and

WHEREAS, 2005 is a landmark year for crime victims and survivors and those who serve them; and

WHEREAS, The respect and protection of victims' rights within the legal process is one of the most critical components of an effective criminal justice system; and

WHEREAS, Victims and witnesses of crime require special attention to ensure that they are thoroughly informed about, and participate effectively in, the criminal justice system; and

WHEREAS, To the maximum extent allowed by law, victims of violent crime should receive compensation for their losses; and

WHEREAS, Each day, thousands of victims and witnesses receive assistance from victim support organizations, victim-witness assistance centers, private service providers, and state and local governments; and

WHEREAS, The criminal justice system in this state must persist in its effort to better coordinate and improve the quality of services provided to victims and witnesses; and

WHEREAS, California has been a pioneer in victims' rights and is observing the 40th anniversary of California's Victim Compensation Program, the first, oldest, and largest in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Since 1965, California has awarded over $1 billion to help crime victims; and

WHEREAS, California citizens enshrined victims' rights in the California Constitution in 1982 through the passage of Proposition 8, the Crime Victims' Bill of Rights; and

WHEREAS, Each year, the observance of the National Crime Victims' Rights Week focuses on the problems confronting victims of crime and the services available to support these victims; and

WHEREAS, The remembrances observed during National Crime Victims' Rights Week promote awareness of victim issues and acknowledge the combined efforts of citizens, government, and the criminal justice system to improve victims' services in California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the week of April 10 through April 16, 2005, be recognized as Crime Victims' Rights Week in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

Attest:

Secretary of State
